Fair Housing  Opportunity

If you believe you may be a victim of housing discrimination because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability or familial status, contact HUD at: 1-800-669-9777 or www.hud.gov/fairhousing.

I WAS DENIED HOUSING BECAUSE I HAVE AN ASSISTANCE ANIMAL.

SO I CONTACTED HUD FOR HELP.

When a landlord tried to deny me housing because of my assistance animal, I contacted HUD and learned about my fair housing rights. For instance, landlords must make reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, such as allowing an assistance or emotional support animal in a no-pets building. If you believe you have experienced discrimination, contact HUD or your local fair housing center and file a complaint.

Fair Housing Is Your Right. Use It!

They told me to "Try someplace else."

So I did. I called HUD.

I found the perfect apartment near a park and public transportation. I asked for a reasonable accommodation for my service dog, but the landlord told me "no pets - try someplace else." So I called HUD and found out it's illegal for a housing provider to prohibit service animals. I filed a complaint, and now my dog and I have a great place to live.

Landlords must make reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, such as allowing for service animals or providing an accessible parking space. Report housing discrimination to HUD or your local fair housing center.

3 TOURS. 2 PURPLE HEARTS. 1 EVICTION NOTICE.

When my landlord found out I had Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), I received an eviction notice. That's when I called HUD for help. If you feel that you've been discriminated against because of a mental or emotional injury or disability, report it to HUD or your local fair housing center.
